MR. MEET BHANUSHALI

freejooo@nardcart : whoami
I'm a computer science student at Indian Institute of Information Technology, Lucknow (IIITL) I am a amateur full stack developer.
I'm a patient learner who has a keen interest in exploring new horizons, who can quickly learn about new technologies and can work solo as well as collaborate with a team.
I am a strong advocate for good OpSec and the popularisation of GPG technology, and decentralisation.
